Press Advisory

State Parks Officials To Discuss Folsom Rape Case

FOLSOM – Officials with the California Department of Parks and Recreation will hold a media availability this morning to discuss a rape investigation under way at Folsom Lake State Recreation Area.

California State Parks rangers are investigating an alleged multiple rape of a juvenile female by several juvenile suspects earlier this month. The victim was a 16-year-old girl. The five suspects identified by State Parks Rangers ranged in age from 16 years old to 17 years old. All five have been arrested by State Parks Rangers, who are sworn peace officers.

The media availability will be held at 11 a.m. at the California State Parks Gold Fields District headquarters at 7806 Folsom-Auburn Road in Folsom.
